Office Memorandum

Sub: Equivalence of M.Tech. Software Engineering programme

In compliance with a direction from the University Grants Commission (UGC) to all universities vide its circular dated July 10, 2014, to align the nomenclature of the degrees awarded by them with the degrees specified by the UGC in The Gazette of India No. 27 dated July 5, 2014, the Institute has renamed the degree earlier titled Master of Science (M.S.) offered through its Work Integrated Learning Programmes.

Specifically, the Master of Science (M.S.) Software Engineering programme has been renamed as Master of Technology (M.Tech.) Software Engineering.

The M.Tech. Software Engineering programme is academically equivalent to the corresponding M.S. Software Engineering programme, in terms of content and rigour.
